

Chapter/State Council Website Order Form

VVA is pleased to offer our affiliate chapters and state councils an affordable option for gaining a presence on the web. Simply pick one of the designs below and fill in your information in the fields provided. VVA will create and host your one page site for only $25/year.

All sites will include a web address and e-mail link along with any other information about your chapter or state council that you wish to include. This information may be changed once per year after your elections.

Once your order is complete please be patient, your site will be posted online within 5 business days. You will be notified via e-mail of the link to your site and e-mail address.
